Last Confederate Soldier in Congress

Mr. Chairman, today marks the man whose heart knows no guile, an plause.) I voice the combined senti- years to enjoy the universal confiment of every member of this body in dence, respect and veneration not only

He is the only surviving member in either branch of congress of that valiant host of men who fought in the Confederate army. And while he has never and never will surrender his conviction of the justice of the cause for which he and his comrades endured so much, there is no man in this republic today who loves his whole country with a more profound devotion. (Applause.)
